

Crescent makes appointment

Monday, November 07, 2005

JUNIOR explorer Crescent Gold has recorded high-grade hits at its Laverton project in Western Australia and appointed Canadian-based mining lawyer and merger and acquisition specialist Tookie Angus to its board as an independent director.

Angus is presently managing director of mergers and acquisitions for Endeavour Financial, and has over 30 years experience in the legal and commercial aspects of the mining industry.

Crescent said the addition of Angus to its board would facilitate new growth opportunities for the company and would assist the completion of its TSX interlisting.

Angus is also a director of Bema Gold Corp, Canico Resource Corp, IMA Exploration and Nevsun Resources.

Meanwhile, drilling at the Fish deposit at its 1.38 million ounce Laverton Gold project has returned hits of 7m at 7 grams per tonne of gold from 12m, 8m at 5.7gpt from 96m, and 8m at 5.6gpt from 107m.

In addition, drilling at the main Sickle deposit has returned hits of 12m at 9.6gpt from 41m and 6m at 7.3gpt from 139m. The company said a preliminary reserve estimate for the 520,000oz deposit was nearing completion.

Shares in the company remained unchanged during early trade at 20c.
